ABOUT SECTION

Headline: Meet Rudhra

Between deadlines, meetings, travel, and everything else on your plate, "eat clean and hit the gym" isn't advice — it's noise.

COACHEDBYRUDHRA was built for people exactly like you: driven professionals — men and women — who take their work seriously and want to take their health just as seriously, without turning their life upside down to do it.

Every program is 1:1. Every plan is built around your actual schedule, your energy levels, your travel days, and your goals — not a generic template pulled off the internet.

This isn't about becoming a gym person. It's about becoming a stronger, sharper, more energized version of yourself — on a plan you can actually sustain.

WHY COACHEDBYRUDHRA

1. Built Around Your Calendar, Not the Other Way Around Early meetings, late nights, travel weeks — your program adapts to your reality instead of demanding you rearrange your life for it.

2. True 1:1 Coaching No group templates. Direct access to your coach, a plan built specifically for your body and schedule, and real accountability.

3. Nutrition Guidance That Fits Your Life Eating out for work lunches, travel, client dinners — your nutrition plan is built to work with your reality, not against it.

4. Results You Can Feel at Work Too More energy, better focus, better sleep, more confidence in the room — the benefits show up far beyond the gym.

THE PROGRAM

1:1 Training Sessions + Nutrition Guidance

A fully personalized program combining:

- 1:1 Training Sessions — programming built around your goals, schedule, and current fitness level, with form correction and consistent progression
- Nutrition Guidance — a practical, sustainable eating plan built around your routine, food preferences, and lifestyle — not restriction for the sake of restriction
- Ongoing Accountability — regular check-ins to keep you consistent even during your busiest weeks

Personal training starts from ₹10,000 INR onwards.

(Add package tiers/duration once finalized — happy to help structure these.)

WHO THIS IS FOR

- Professionals who want results without living at the gym
 - Anyone whose energy, focus, or motivation has taken a hit from work stress
 - People who've tried fitness apps and generic plans that didn't fit their schedule
 - Men and women serious about investing in their health the same way they invest in their career

WHAT CHANGES FOR YOU

- More energy through long workdays

- Better focus and sharper decision-making
 - Improved sleep and stress management
 - Visible physical results — strength, body composition, confidence
 - A sustainable system, not another plan you'll abandon in three weeks

SOCIAL PROOF

(Section for client transformation photos/testimonials — recommend 3-4 with a specific result quoted, e.g. "Lost X kg in X weeks while traveling 3 days a week for work")

FAQ

I travel frequently for work — can this still work for me? Yes. Programs are built to flex around travel, hotel gyms, and irregular schedules.

I've never trained consistently before — is this still for me? Yes. Programs are built for your current fitness level, whether you're starting fresh or picking back up.

Will the nutrition plan require cooking elaborate meals? No. Guidance is built around what's realistic for your routine — including eating out and travel days.

How much does it cost? Personal training starts from ₹10,000 INR onwards, depending on the program and duration. This is discussed in detail during your free consultation.

How do sessions work — online or in person? (Confirm delivery format — online coaching, in-person, or hybrid — so this can be added.)
